

ORDERING INFORMATION

As a fundraiser for the nonprofit Boston Mill Society, colorful T-shirts, large tote bags, and teflon coated aprons are being sold. The Valley Rose, Delicious Apple, Oregon Maid, Golden West, and Thompson's Best were five of the types of flour produced. Lewis and Clark walking with Lady Liberty was the emblem of the 1905 World's Fair - the Lewis & Clark Exposition in Portland, Oregon. It was used on the mill's return envelopes that year because the mill won two 1st prizes and four 2nd prizes at the Expo. There are also rose mugs, Big T caps and white sweat shirts with a black line drawing of the mill.
